

The Hat Rack

No matter what “hat” we wear, our goal is to live for God. We serve and honor God alone, regardless of whether we do so as a disciple, spouse, parent, child, citizen, or servant. No one hat is more important than another; they are simply roles through which we live out a devotion to God that is evident in everything we do.